

Jane Brown

Brooming, Burgh Hill, Etchingam, East Sussex TN19 7PB * 07894 427114* jane@janebrown.co.uk
www.janebrown.co.uk

Professional Summary:

I am a Landscape Architect & Garden Designer with a wealth of experience of designing & delivering top end garden & landscape projects across the UK.

Skills:

Designing stylish, contemporary gardens
Restoration works to sensitive historic gardens & landscapes
Producing high quality construction packages for tender including hard & soft landscape design.
Horticultural & plant knowledge
Planning application for listed building consents & general planning consents.
Budget management
Working with contractors to implement garden works & landscaping
Garden maintenance schedules & garden staff recruitment.

Work History;

Jane Brown Associates Limited 2005-Present, London & East Sussex

Director & Landscape Architect & Garden Designer

Designing & implementing garden projects across the UK from country gardens in Sussex & Hampshire, a Scottish estate in the Borders, a garden on the Isle of Wight. Gardens in Notting Hill, Kensington & Wimbledon. Current projects include working with Adam Architecture on the refurbishment of an Arts & Crafts property in Chelsea where the garden was originally designed by Gertrude Jekyll & the restoration of the gardens at Isfield Place, East Sussex.

See www.janebrown.co.uk

The Landscape Agency Ltd, 2000-2005 York & London

Senior Landscape Architect

Working on the design and implementation of key garden & landscape projects including working alongside the Grosvenor Estate on the up-grade & re-planting of Eaton Square Gardens in Belgravia (winning a gold medal in the London Squares Competition in 2003); working on the refurbishment of Portman Square Gardens; the restoration of parkland & gardens at Gunton Park, Norfolk & Thame Park, Oxfordshire.

See www.landscapeagency.co.uk

Mark Lutyens at Clifton Nurseries Ltd 1997-2000, London

Garden Designer

Working as a garden designer for Mark Lutyens, resident Landscape Architect at Clifton Nurseries in Little Venice, London. Projects included a garden at Kensington Palace, a garden at Cholmondeley Castle, Cheshire & working with Mark Lutyens on the Millenium Sculpture Garden at Boots plc Headquarters in Nottingham.

See www.mark-lutyens.co.uk

Education

MA Landscape Architecture, 2000

University of Greenwich, London

City & Guilds National Certificate in Horticulture & Garden Design - Distinction, 1996

Otley College, Suffolk

BA Combined Honours in English & History, Class 2:1, 1989

University of Birmingham